The Whip-poor-will Club."
Book IV - 1930.

Revised Constitution of the Whip-poor-will Club.

Change is the one thing in life that brings about all joy and all sorrow.
Men are continually making changes in homes, that they may better their conditions. but it does not always turn out as they desire.

However, that does not alter the case as we are still willing to take risk, because we see others making a success by changing.

There is but one change that all true men can make that have not already made it, that is to change from a non-fraternal to a fraternal

Fraternity exhibits highest and noblest character in man. It places him in a position to help and be helped.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

The Whippoorwill Song

I

I love to stray by the woodland rill,
When the evening shadows play,
And hear the song of the Whippoorwill,
As he sings his evening lay.

Chorus—

Piano solo

Whippoorwill, whippoorwill, repeat three times!
Oh list - Oh list, as he sings his evening song.

To

Whippoorwill - whippoorwill - whippoorwill, Whippoorwill
Oh list Oh list, as he sings his evening song.
Sweet Song!

II Oh soft he tells his evening lay,
By breezes borne along;
A saddened feeling ~~as~~ me creeps,
As I listen to his song.
Chorus.

III It calls to mind the old old home,
So many miles away,
With long lost friends
I have oftentimes heard him sing his evening lay.
Chorus.

On Thurs eve. Feb 29th Mr. & Mrs. Carroll Colony opened their spacious home to another one of those whif. for-wice parties for 30 members and their husbands totaling 60 in all.
Reciders to see all had a grand time. It being a "wrong way party" followed by a box supper, lots of things were done backwards as well as the wrong way.
Dresses & skirts were worn backwards and men's clothing also worn backwards. The biggest problem of the evening was guessing whether the guests were coming or going. Several very appropriate games were enjoyed. A political speech was very cleverly given by Nellie Schreimster announcing Verne Colony & Irene Coglau as possible candidates for mem-
